VENUE : TRUSTWELL HOSPITALS BENGALURU

Objectives

- Facial plastic and reconstructive surgery is a recognised sub speciality with suitable contributions by plastic surgeons, otolaryngologists, ophthalmologists, maxillofacial surgeons and dermatologists in an orchestrated fashion.
- Facial reconstructive and cosmetic surgery India Trust (FRC SI®) would like to invite surgeons interested in the science and art of facial plastic and cosmetic surgery to partake in this unique course which comprehensively creates a foundation for further clinical expertise in facial plastic surgery.
- The course has been designed to equip surgeons with the most desirable surgical skills in real time. It focuses more on the daily needs of a facial aesthetic surgeon and gives them practical Hands-On experience rather than presentations. The course has been designed into four days.
- We have chosen the best of the faculty to train you in the particular topic of Facial Plastic Surgery, hoping to transfer surgical skills to you during the course. All this has been planned into 3 days to give you the most effective exposure to renowned International and National faculty from all disciplines and various schools of thought. We sincerely believe in helping you gain insights into the dynamic concepts of facial beautification surgery.

History

A group of committed individuals came together in 2011 to improve the branch of Head & Neck surgery by advancing the knowledge and skills of surgeons in Facial Aesthetic & Reconstructive Surgery.

A course was designed to teach basic and advanced Facial Plastic Surgery in real time. Year after year the course is being conducted with eminent faculties around the world & India. The National Facial Plastic Surgery Course has now become a brand in itself and has trained close to 600+ delegates in the last 10 years.

This is the only course in Indian subcontinent which involves real time training in Facial Plastic Surgery by hands on mode. The course has become a sought-after educational avenue for candidates from the specialty of Plastic Surgery, Otolaryngology, Ophthalmology, maxillofacial and dermatology to train after their base specialties.

Facial Plastic Reconstructive Surgery has become one of the predominant subspecialties, thanks to increasing awareness, expendable incomes and advancing techniques. This science had remained the privilege of a few and hence Facial Reconstructive & Cosmetic Surgery India decided to launch this course to make this education available to all the specialist surgeons.

The course is set as per the standard followed internationally and aims to train and equip surgeons keeping in mind ever expanding cosmetic surgery industry. The course is unique because it has a faculty to student ratio of 1:1. The course is a stepping stone towards higher surgical training in the form of guided observer-ship and International Federation approved Fellowships.
